

ENGLISH FESTIVITIES

INFORMATION AND PICTURES

CHRISTMAS

- Christmas is on 25th December.
- People decorate the Christmas tree.
- Santa Claus brings presents to good children and coal to bad children.
- Santa has got eight reindeer.
- Children eat candy canes.
- People sing Christmas carols.

HALLOWEEN

- Halloween is on 31st October.
- Children wear costumes.
- There are a lot of Jack-o-lanterns.
- Children go trick-or-treating at night.
- They receive a lot of sweets.
- There are a lot of Halloween parties.

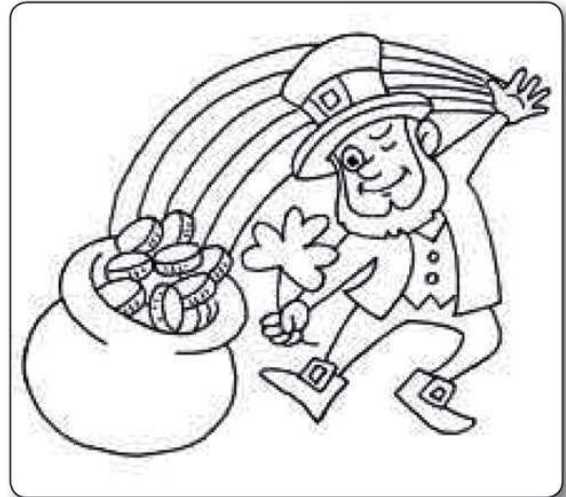

THANKSGIVING

- Thanksgiving Day is celebrated in November in the U.S.A.
- It is also celebrated in Canada in October.
- It is a family celebration.
- People eat turkey and pumpkin pie.
- The Pilgrims are a symbol of Thanksgiving.

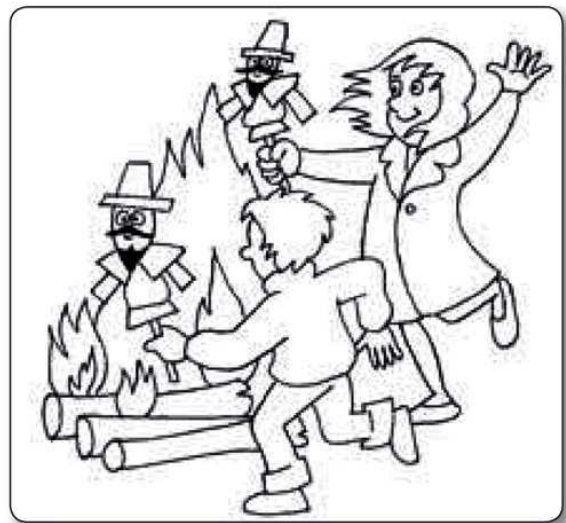

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

- St. Patrick's Day is on 17th March.
- It is a special day in Ireland.
- People wear green on St. Patrick's Day.
- Leprechauns are symbols of this festivity.
- Shamrocks bring good luck.
- There are parades on this day.

GUY FAWKES' NIGHT

- Guy Fawkes' Night is on 5th November.
- It is also called Bonfire Night.
- It is celebrated in England.
- Children make a puppet of Guy Fawkes and they burn it in a bonfire.
- There are bonfires and fireworks at night.

EASTER

- Easter is in March or April.
- There are chocolate bunnies or eggs.
- The Easter bunny brings the eggs.
- People eat hot cross buns.
- There are Easter egg hunts.

