

FATHER CHRISTMAS' DAY

Every day Father Christmas goes to the post office, riding his sleigh, to take letters from all over the world.

He speaks to the clerk.

Father Christmas: - Hello, John. How are you?

John: - Hi! I'm fine, thank you.

Father Christmas: - Can I have my letters, please?

John: - Here you are.

Father Christmas: - Goodbye, John!

John: - See you tomorrow.

Then he visits his reindeers in the stable and the elves in the toys factory. Later, going back home, he buys some candies at the sweets shop.
